Workers Union Strike Action – Force Majeure

Dear Valued customer,

Kindly accept our compliments.

The Management of APM Terminals Liberia Ltd. is hereby informing all of our valued customers and stakeholders that the container related services are experiencing significant disturbance due to an unannounced strike action staged by the workers unions on September 29, 2020, at 6:00 pm.

We are currently working with the Ministry of Labour and the leadership of the workers union to speedily resolve this issue with the hope of restoring full service delivery to all of our customers and partners at the soonest possible.

APM Terminals Liberia Ltd. management would like to inform and assure all our stakeholders that the company is always in full compliance with all Labour related regulations and practices.

Many thanks for your understanding.

Best regards,

Management APM Terminals Liberia Ltd
